

Learning Support

Resources for Parents & Pupils

I have put together the resources information below which you might find useful. A web search of some of the key names will also produce links to further resource ideas.

Beverley Callender
Head of Learning Support

Useful web sites:

www.yoropen.co.uk

www.gltc.co.uk or 0844 8486000

www.arkellcentre.org.uk or 01252 792400 – It is worth checking the Helen Arkell Dyslexia Centre web site regularly as they often provide useful courses and lectures applicable to parents

www.dyslexiainstitute.com

www.oxfordprimary.co.uk – a useful site for Oxford Reading Tree books/literacy resources

Books/Reading Schemes:

Ginn

Oxford Reading Tree

Barrington Stoke

The 'Book People' Book Club www.thebookpeople.co.uk (books and CD recordings for all the family)

Literacy:

Eye level reading rulers (coloured acetate to use as an overlay when reading)

LDA Catalogue (Learning Development Aids), includes pencil grips/software etc.

'Minute A Day' by Sheila Crompton (Tel:01659 50193) – Phonics and Maths games for parents* www.aminuteaday.co.uk

Numeracy:

www.tridias.co.uk or 08704431300

Teach 'Time' watches

Wooden Fraction Board

The Best Websites for homework (book)

01942 883210 'Sum Thing' Abacus Counting Resources

'Minute A Day' by Sheila Crompton (Tel:01659 50193) – Phonics and Maths games for parents*

Memory/Literacy/Numeracy/Technology:

MindWare – brainy toys for children of all ages www.mindwareonline.co.uk

Memory Cards – www.suttondyslexia.org.uk

Support for parents:

www.cafamily.org.uk provides a link entitled useful web sites

A Moulsoford parent Mrs Sophia Nicholls is the local parent representative for Oxfordshire and can be contacted at sophia.nicholls@special1.fsnet.co.uk